Mr. Wiensteen.

If you want believers in Jesus Christ out of the military so bad how would you like if we brought back the ovens for you jews?

We tolerate only so much of you jew smack talk.

Got Holocaust?

Think about it while you think about retiring.

Hello coward,

Idiots and cowards, in your case both, slobber out garbage like this. I'd say you should be ashamed of yourself but you're obviously so lost in the dungheap you're incapable of shame.

We have no interest in getting "believers of Jesus Christ out of the military," as you claim here, but it takes someone with a working brain, something you sadly lack, to understand that. If you ever have the courage to actually contact us with a legitimate question I'll be happy to explain to you what we're truly about.

I doubt, however, that you'll be willing or brave enough to do that. Courage clearly isn't one of your attributes. Parroting imbecilic, antisemitic nonsense may be all you're capable of.

How sad.

Your anonymous and abhorrent anti-Semitic attack on a fellow American (MRFF Founder & President Mikey Weinstein – an American military veteran & dedicated American patriot) because he was born of a Jewish mother (like Jesus) reflects only on yourself and reveals an illiterate ignoramus who cannot communicate with intelligence or integrity.

Biblical history records Christianity is just a branch off the ancient tree of Judaism and there would be no Christianity without the Jewish faith, culture & people. Jesus, his disciples & the biblical authors were all Jewish. Jesus was known as the "king of the Jews" – not Christians (Matthew 2:2&27:11, Luke 23:3&38). Jesus preached "salvation is from the Jews" – not Christians (John 4:22). Judaism based Christianity teaches there is no difference between Jews & Gentiles because we are all one (Romans 10:12, 1 Corinthians 12:13, Galatians 3:28). It is recommended you read the Christian New Testament (written by Jews) for enlightenment.

Mikey

Just wanted to say thank you for the rapid response from you and your team. It was amazing to receive an email from you personally within 6 hours of sending my initial email. When I called your contact number, you picked up after one ring. That kind of support for active duty servicemembers is outstanding.

Thanks again for your advice and counsel. I will reach out to the leadership at my base to discuss the issue of a Bible prominently displayed on the POW/MIA table at the DFAC. I am hoping for a positive response quickly and I know that I have the backing and support of your team.

Thanks again,

A Deployed Airman
